

HOOPS FOR HOUSTON
GOLDEN VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL
VARSITY BASKETBALL SHOWCASE & FUNDRAISER

Basketball is Played all over the world it is as universal as compassion and kindness. So when the tragic flooding of Hurricane Harvey devastated the great city of Houston, we knew that Basketball and compassion could be at the forefront of making a difference.

In conjunction with our Principal Sal Frias, Head Boys Varsity coach Larry Keys, our Basketball Booster Club and Asst. Coach Segun Oduolowu, a graduate of the University of Houston, and former walk-on basketball player we created "Hoops for Houston."

We have partnered with the Cypress Spring Panthers, a Houston area high school coached by Sam Benitez to donate proceeds from a weekend basketball showcase of local California teams towards the Panthers basketball players and program, affected by the floods.

We are excited, and thank the other schools who jumped on board to participate in the showcase, which is being held Sunday October 8th, from 12pm until 7pm at Golden Valley High School.
