

Hart District Wellness

invites students to join us virtually for

“How to Help My Friends Stay Safe:

A Conversation with Students” on Thursday, 10/28/21, from 5 pm to 5:30 pm

You won't want to miss this discussion about teens noticing friends who might be taken advantage of, what to notice, how to talk to your friend about it, and how to know what adults can help. Our panelists include:

Dan Broyles, LMFT,
Head of the SCV Human Trafficking Task Force,
Larry Schallert, LCSW,
Assistant Director of COC Student Health Wellness & Mental Health, & Jane Schallert, MSW,
Mental Health Liaison for child forensic interviews

*Please click the follow link to register for this virtual event: <https://forms.gle/5taBTtSR3TcJeNpE8>

The link for the Zoom will be sent to you after you register. If you'd like, you can include questions for our panelist when you register (optional).

For help registering, please email Nancy Phillips at nphillips@hartdistrict.org